

last summer. Another more fundamental sign is the ongoing effort to build the closest possible strategic partnership between our country and the United States.

Romania is fully committed to forming and nurturing this special partnership. Democracy can only flourish in Romania and we can only become a more positive influence in the region if our role as a stabilizing force is acknowledged and supported by the United States and its allies. Romania is living proof that Eastern and Southeastern Europe are not doomed to a life of conflict. But we all have the duty to be on guard against hatred in any form.

Over the past year, Romania has proved that the occasional political storm matters less than having a sound political foundation that allows us to weather those storms. We have also learned that despite our profound and unflinching commitment to privatization and economic reform, it will be more difficult to rebuild the Romanian economy than we or our friends expected. We understand the need to balance our eagerness for speedy reform with the need to maintain social stability. We have been able to do this so far. Again, this is a tribute to our democratic institutions and the commitment of our people to those institutions. The next step is to speed up privatization while maintaining our social equilibrium.

All of these efforts, building the society, consolidating democratic institutions, reforming the economy, our contribution to the security of Eastern Europe would be more difficult without your assistance. But I can assure you they are well worth your efforts, as they do so much to advance peace and stability in such a vital part of the world.

As a representative of the American people, I want to thank you on behalf of my country for the friendship and help the United States has shown us.

The land of freedom, the land I spoke about a few minutes ago, is a unique place. It belongs to those who are willing to sacrifice for its attainment and its defense. It is a land your Founding Fathers conceived and the one envisioned by our own patriotic thinkers and fighters. It is the land of your brave military men and women, as it is the land of Romania's soldiers who volunteered to go to Albania, Angola, the Persian Gulf and Bosnia, in any country where peace is under attack. It is our challenge together, as allies and partners, to build the bridges to the next millennium from the Danube to the Potomac, from the Black Sea to the Pacific Ocean and beyond, wherever people believe in and fight for freedom.

I would like to close with a true story. One hundred and fifty years ago, a young Romanian who had fought for freedom in the 1848 revolution emigrated to America. His name was George Pomutz, which in Romanian means "little tree." Once on American soil, he volunteered for Lincoln's Army and fought in some of the key battles of the Civil War, including Vicksburg and Atlanta. Our "little tree" went on to become a general in your Army and later an American diplomat, serving in Russia, where he helped negotiate the American purchase of Alaska. In 1944, long after his death, the Romanian community in the United States donated money to build a battleship, named for Romanian-American General George Pomutz. The ship named for the "little tree" served in peace and war, always a symbol of strength and vigilance. Over the decades, Pomutz' story attests to the common roots shared by our two people, the closeness of their souls, their love of freedom and their willingness to fight in its defense.

God bless America. God bless Romania. God bless the land of freedom.

THE BEANIE BABY CAPERGATE

(Mr. GIBBONS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GIBBONS. Mr. Speaker, as we all know, the President and his entourage just recently returned from a 9-day, taxpayer-paid, $50 million trip to China. It appears that America's tough-talking trade representative, Charlene Barshefsky, has shunned and even ignored American trade law. My word, Mr. Speaker, we now have the Barshefsky Beanie Baby Capergate.

Apparently, the President's trade rep, who is supposed to know, who is supposed to understand, who is supposed to follow trade laws, was caught red-handed in China's unregulated back-alley Beanie-Baby black market. Barshefsky illegally acquired a boatload of Beanie Babies while in Beijing and tried to bring them back to the United States.

"Whoa, not so fast," said the U.S. Customs, since it is illegal to purchase these toys in China.

Well, what is next? I hope the Clinton Administration does not think that this is an even trade for the top-secret missile technology they just gave them. With a $50 billion U.S. trade deficit, maybe the Chinese were secretly paying off the Clinton Administration with Barshefsky Beanie Babies.

I yield back to the American people any legal Beanie Babies not hiding in the White House.

PATIENT'S BILL OF RIGHTS

(Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, you ask the question, what do the American people want? Well, they want a real Patient's Bill of Rights, not the whiplash health care bill that Speaker GINGRICH and the Republicans want us to buy in. Whiplash? It comes real sharp, and when you get through, it hurts badly.

Our Patient's Bill of Rights guarantees a patient's right to see a specialist when they need to. It emphasizes the patient's and the doctor's rights and relationships. It guarantees that our
